the subtitle of this sixth and final volume of the vincentians internationalization and aggiornamento 1919 1980 describes the growth and change of the congregation of the mission in the twentieth century formerly european in focus the provinces of the congregation gained their own voice membership in mission lands such as china brazil and ethiopia surged as local vocations joined their european confreres the same is true of maturing provinces elsewhere st vincent de paul s congregation became internationalized in both outreach and membership the vincentians in these recent decades also tasted the bitterness of persecution the congregation was suppressed at various times in europe latin america asia and africa its members often reacted by moving elsewhere thus furthering the internationalization of the vincentian charism under the nazis and communist regimes many suffered imprisonment torture and death the provinces of central

Europe Slovakia Hungary and Poland to say nothing of China were particularly hard hit updating aggiornamento was the watchword toward the close of this period as society changed so did the church and with it the Vincentians the process was difficult and painful but it moved the congregation in directions originally laid down by the founder increasingly the members emphasized mutual cooperation with many Vincentian inspired lay organizations the Vincentian family the inspiration shared among them all has been a further manifestation of the compelling insights of St Vincent de Paul

Until now there has been no single text that brings together the material that reveals the unfolding geography of Johannesburg South Africa this book describes the history of the city from its days as a mining camp to its position of premier metropolis in Africa the present geography of Johannesburg and the problems and dysfunctions that it has exhibited at various stages in its history since 1886 cannot be understood without a firm grasp of what has evolved over the past 120 years

This book is the second in the series presenting prominent South Africans who played a vital role in the long struggle against racial oppression scholars and reflective South Africans will do well to listen to these voices of liberation many of which were deliberately silenced the road to democratisation in the new South Africa cannot be securely built without close reference to those powerful voices from the past

This book presents a detailed study of the political journalism of Ruth First an independent thinker and a headstrong journalist who stood her ground in a male dominated liberation movement a product of information gathering which began in South Africa in 1986 at a time when discussing communism exposed one to the possibility of imprisonment without trial the subject matter in this book discusses her unwavering commitment and contribution to a free press print editions not for sale in sub-Saharan Africa this book is part of Routledge's co-published series 30 years of democracy in South Africa in collaboration with Unisa Press which reflects on the past years of a democratic South Africa and assesses the future opportunities and challenges
